MAUI NOTES

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
WAILUKU, July 19.—Duncan B. Muck and family have had a delightful outing for a few days at Oihua.

David T. Fleming, manager of Honolulu Ranch, is building a two-story house in Makawao. The new building is going up on a piece of land that adjoins his father's homestead.

Errol von Tempky, son of Louis von Tempky of the Halekela Ranch, broke his arm while swinging. The many friends of the popular little man hope that the accident will not prove a long drawn out affair, but that his arm will mend quickly.

C. D. Lufkin visited the Volcano this week.

Manager Koch of the Pioneer Store, who has been so popular here the last few months, has resigned his position and will return to the Coast for a short visit. His many friends regret his leaving Wailuku. He will probably engage in business in Honolulu at a later date.

Mrs. R. S. Kingsbury of Honolulu, is visiting her father, Hon. Seiden B. Kingsbury. She arrived on the last Claudine, and was accompanied on this visit to Maui by her sister, Miss Elliott, and Mrs. Morris.

Miss Irma Wodehouse, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia at the Mahulani Hospital, is much better and was able to leave the care of the nurses last Friday.

Mrs. Abigail Tilton of Hamakua, wife of D. K. Tilton, luna of the Maui Agricultural Company, died suddenly this week. She was buried from the Paha Hawaiian church on Thursday at three o'clock. Rev. R. B. Dodge, who returned from the Kaula Convention on Wednesday evening, assisted by the two deacons of the church, Peter N. Kahukiluna and John Kalua, conducted the funeral services. The church was packed with mourners and many friends of the family. The body was buried behind the church.

William Walsh and family of Kahuli have moved into their pretty bungalow beach cottage. The house was designed by Mrs. Walsh, and is pronounced by all who have seen it, a most attractive residence.

Dr. E. Bruce Beasley, interne at the Queen's Hospital, Honolulu, is taking Dr. William Osmer's place as County Physician from July 15th to August 15th. Osmer sailed on the Wilhelmina for a short vacation.

Mrs. W. Leslie West of Wailuku gave a delightful birthday party in honor of the sixth birthday of her daughter, Alice. The many little friends of that young lady were all present to help her celebrate the event. A few mothers were present, too. All had a most delightful time. Delicious refreshments were served. The affair took place at the home of the Wests in Wailuku.

On Saturday last Miss Herriman entertained about eighteen of her young lady friends at the Alexander House Settlement. Many of these were back from the schools for the summer vacation.

Miss Edith D. Keola has been engaged by the Wailuku Union church to play the organ at the church services during the summer months.

Miss Keola is a most promising young musician, who has been doing some excellent work on the piano with her music teacher in Honolulu. She is with her father, James N. K. Keola, for her vacation.

Mrs. Cora C. Copeland is in Honolulu for a few weeks vacation. Judge W. A. McKay has been in Honolulu for a few days during the operation upon Mrs. McKay. The many Maui friends are glad to know that Mrs. McKay is so comfortable, and that her operation has been so highly successful.

The summer attendance at the Gymnasium is very large. Forty boys are cared for in an athletic way twice a week by Business Manager W. H. Engle. He knows just how to handle the crowd and keep everybody interested.

The Maui Hotel has been during a rushing business so far this season. The new dining hall will be used regularly for meals from now on. The many visitors to Maui have filled both hotels this summer and everyone who visits them are pleased with the excellent service.

Miss Ida M. Pope, principal of the Kamehameha School for girls is at the James Castle mountain home. She has a few friends with her, and all are having a most delightful vacation. Next month Miss Pope intends to leave Maui for a trip about Hawaii, visiting the many girls who have been or who are now connected with the school. She spent a summer recently visiting in this way on Maui.

TO DO STAMPING.

Here is a hint for those who do their own stamping. Instead of using stamping wax, wash a small ball of clothes blueing, and with a little piece of velvet rub it over the perforated pattern; then remove the pattern from your goods and trace the design with a lead pencil. This must be done or the blueing will rub off, says Needlecraft. This method is not so expensive, and if the work does not entirely cover the stamping, the marks will come out when laundered, which those made with the wax will not always or often do.

BUTTON THIMMING.

Buttons provide all the people for originality which is otherwise lacking in some of the one-piece frocks and braided tulle costumes of the moment. Some of the newest buttons are those which are made of carved white bone, cut in the form of a half-closed butterfly, the center of which is filled with a tiny red bubble of bone as polished as a bagatelle ball. These looked very attractive on a coat and skirt of ivory Irish linen, with a narrow roll collar of red silk. With the costume it was intended to wear a white hemstitched lingerie shirt and a tiny red silk tie.

KITCHEN SEAT.

A window seat in the kitchen, besides affording a cozy resting-spot, will serve as a cover for many unsightly, though necessary, articles, says Mothers Magazine. The dusting outfit may be kept there, or kindling or wood for the stove, or the family's overalls, even the supply of kitchen linens, such as towels and aprons, or the laundry supplies, if the kitchen is also the laundry, or old newspapers whose uses are so numerous.

Garden Party for Dr. and Mrs. Eliot.
THE GARDEN PARTY and informal reception to be given next Tuesday afternoon for Dr. Charles Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard, and Mrs. Eliot, will be one of the most notable as well as pleasant social functions of the year.

The party will be given from four to six o'clock on the Dillingham grounds, Woodlawn, corner of Berea and Punahou streets, and will be under the auspices of the Harvard Club of Hawaii. No written invitations are to be issued, but through this notice a cordial invitation is extended to all those who care to avail themselves of the opportunity of meeting President Eliot and Mrs. Eliot. The Harvard club aims in this way to afford opportunity for the distinguished educator and his wife to meet a representative gathering of Honolulu folk, and therefore no formal invitations are being sent out. Miss Ruth Eliot, granddaughter of Dr. and Mrs. Eliot and Mr. Roger Pierce, Dr. Eliot's secretary, will receive with them. Informality will be the keynote of the occasion, and the setting for the party, on the beautiful lawns and under the shady trees of the Dillingham grounds, will make this occasion a peculiarly happy opportunity for the people of Honolulu to meet one of the world's foremost men.

Where Do You Buy Your Toilet Goods?

Do you drop in at the most convenient store and take any FACE POWDER or CREAM that may be handed out to you, or that you happen to know by name?

Many face powders contain bleaching chemicals that are dangerous to use — others are made in three or four shades, each shade intended for a certain type of complexion. Some rouges show for a block, while a touch of the right kind cannot be detected.
